

Edinburgh Family Support Partnership

Umbrella Hubs

The Umbrella Hubs are a new service, working alongside families to provide a range of supports. Our offer of support will be guided by your voice and what your family needs.

Contact us via the Children First support line 08000 28 22 33 or webchat at www.childrenfirst.org.uk

Our Promise to Children, Young People and Families

- Our commitment is to actively listen to you and your family from the beginning and throughout your support, we promise to hear the individual voices within your family.
- We promise to acknowledge your family's strengths and support you to build on these because we believe in the power of relationships.
- We are committed to being available whenever you need advice and guidance and we will ensure that you're actively involved in decisions that affect the support you receive.
- We commit to valuing our staff's diverse skills and experiences, we will work together to share our knowledge and provide the best support for your family.
- We aim to offer support to families when needed and to recognise and build upon the strengths of all communities.

Safe Families

Changing childhoods.
Changing lives.
